

BOSTON LANDMARK COLLECTION

Our Boston Landmark Tins feature the famous icons that make “Beantown” such a historically rich and special city. Filled with either creamy milk or decadent dark chocolate, these elegantly designed tins are beautiful keepsakes for locals and visitors alike – emptying the tins of their delicious chocolate is only half the fun!

Lobster

The Lobster is the unofficial mascot of New England. New England lobsters are famous for their size and the exceptional culinary experience they provide.

Paul Revere

“Listen my children, and you shall hear Of the midnight ride of Paul Revere, On the 18th or April in Seventy-Five...”

~H.W. Longfellow, “Paul Revere’s Ride.”

USS Constitution

Still part of the U.S. Navy ship roster, “Old Ironsides” is a proud emblem of United States naval history. It is the oldest commissioned warship afloat in the world, launched October 21, 1797.

Boston Tea Party

On the evening of December 16, 1773, a group of men called the “Sons of Liberty” went to the Boston Harbor. They boarded three British ships and dumped 45 tons of tea into the Boston Harbor. This singular act heralded the beginning of the American Revolution.

Zakim Bridge

The Leonard P. Zakim Bunker Hill Bridge is the widest cable-stayed bridge in the world. It is named after civil rights activist Lenny Zakim, and the American colonists who fought in the Battle of Bunker Hill.

Old North Church

“Hang a lantern aloft in the belfry arch, Of the North Church tower as a signal,—One if by land, Two if by sea...”

~H.W. Longfellow, “Paul Revere’s Ride.”
