BRIDGE BRANDS™

CHOCOLATE

Bridge Brands™ Chocolate was created for a specific reason: to offer gourmet quality chocolates to chocolate lovers, without the gourmet price. From our inception in 1999, we have rapidly outgrown the shores of the Bay Area. We are proudly featured throughout the country in various wineries, gourmet stores, individual homes and are now enjoying an international presence. We also have a loyal following of customers who clamor after our exceptional chocolates that come packaged in our signature tins.

Our chocolate is made from the highest quality cocoa beans, gathered and imported from three different continents and selected for consistently superior flavor. No matter what your taste preference in chocolate: milk, dark or white, you're sure to find that Bridge Brands Chocolate's offerings are on par with the best.

At Bridge Brands Chocolate, we are committed to making this world a little bit of a sweeter place by contributing excellent chocolate, superb customer service and a consistent product for our customers to rely on.

A distinctive and elegant offering from Bridge Brands Chocolate, our Wine Lover's Chocolate Collection is our signature line. Our exclusive tins are filled with dark chocolate drops that are the perfect size to melt on your tongue as a compliment to the suggested red wine varietals: 54% with Port, 55% with Cabernet Sauvignon, 56% with Pinot Noir, 58% with Merlot, 61% with Syrah and 72% with Zinfandel. Fine wine and fine chocolate – a perfect partnership.

Wine Lover's Chocolate® Collection

Minis

Good things do come in small packages. We've proven that by taking our wildly popular Wine Lover's Collection and shrinking it down into 1.25-ounce boxes. While the packaging has shrunk, we've actually expanded the line by adding the following chocolate and suggested pairings:

31% White Chocolate with Champagne, 38% Milk Chocolate with White Wine, and 64% Dark Chocolate with Bordeaux. Also available in 3, 6 and 9 Set Gift Boxes; great gifts these are beautifully packaged in our sleek acetate boxes!

Gift Sets

Our Wine Lover's Chocolate® gift sets are an elegant and unique presentation. We offer four different combinations of our three-tin sets and a six-tin gift set. The full Wine Lover's Chocolate® six pack pairs with six types of wine varietals. It is the perfect gift for the most discriminating wine and chocolate lover.

Wine Lover's Chocolate®

54% pairs with Port - Perfect for an after dinner treat, the 54% Dark Chocolates are a sublime compliment to the rich, sweet quality of Port wine.

55% pairs with Cabernet - Cabernet Sauvignon is one of the most popular varietals in the U.S. Its full-bodied nature is a perfect match for these 55% Dark Chocolate drops.

56% pairs with Pinot Noir - The 56% cocoa blend offers an ideal counterpart for the velvety, complex quality of Pinot Noir.

58% pairs with Merlot - The lush, fruity characteristics of Merlot are a complete match to the 58% cocoa blend.

61% pairs with Syrah - For a perfect pairing of tastes, the 61% Dark Chocolate balances the spicy, smoky traits associated with Syrah.

72% pairs with Zinfandel - To lift up the rich and powerful properties of Zinfandel, the 72% cocoa blend offers a flawless partnership based on pure taste.

Party Pack

Just add wine! This mixed tray of delicious chocolate is a perfect start to a great tasting party. With 5 ounces each of our Wine Lover's Chocolate Collection, pairing with Port, Cabernet, Pinot Noir, Merlot, Syrah and Zinfandel, the Wine Lover's Party Kit boasts two pounds of premium chocolate in one simple tray. Open the tray, pop the corks on your favorite red wines, and let the tasting begin!

This premium dark chocolate is blended exclusively from the highest quality cacao beans imported from around the world. Our Dark Chocolate Drops can be enjoyed by themselves, or, as an added pleasure, can be paired with a select group of red wines. To truly enjoy CocoaVinoso™ and capture its essence, we suggest that you try some of our recommended pairings: a classic Port, an elegantly aged Cabernet, a refined Pinot, a soft Merlot, a distinct Syrah, and of course, the quintessential California Zinfandel. We hope that CocoaVinoso™ will become your favorite gourmet dark chocolate.

COCOAVINOSO™

Three-Tin Gift Set

Our three most popular percentages of Cocoa Vinoso Chocolates – 55% pairs with Cabernet, 61% pairs with Syrah, and 72% pairs with Zinfandel – are gathered together in this bold turquoise gift box. A delicious collection of premium dark chocolates, packaged in our elegant five-ounce round tins, the CocoaVinoso Three-Tin Gift Set is an enticing surprise for the sophisticated connoisseur of gourmet wine and chocolate.

Add this special chocolate-flavored straw to dark beers, stout ales, or a host of different cocktails for a truly unique sipping experience. The Choc-tail Sipper can act as a distinctive stand-in for chocolate syrup in an existing drink recipe, or as a bold way to create an entirely new concoction! The only limit is your imagination!

WHISKEY LOVER'S CHOCOLATE

True whiskey connoisseurs are always looking for new ways to expand and improve their whisky-drinking experience. That's why Bridge Brands Chocolate is proud to introduce our new Whiskey Lover's Chocolate. The bold taste of our 72% Dark Chocolate Drops blends perfectly with the complex flavor of high-quality whiskies. Bold, yet smooth, our chocolate melts on the tongue for a taste sensation not soon to be forgotten.

Our Wine Lover's Chocolate® collection was the inspiration for this popular line. We figured if wine and chocolate go so well together, why not coffee and chocolate? We were right! Regardless of whether you prefer drip coffee, a smooth latte, or a strong espresso shot, we have a chocolate choice for you. Our velvety milk chocolate has a subtle caramel flavor that is a perfect compliment to lattes and cappuccinos, while our rich dark chocolate pairs best with strong drip coffee or a robust espresso.

Need more validation? Coffee Lover's Chocolate® won "Best New Product" at the Seattle Coffee Fest. If Seattle likes us, then you will too!

Coffee Lover's Chocolate® Collection

Individual Tin

We offer three varieties of chocolate for the most selective of coffee and chocolate lovers.

Our creamy 38% Milk Chocolate pairs best with a milky latte, cappuccino or macchiato.

Our mild 55% Dark Chocolate is best paired with traditional drip or French-pressed coffees of light to medium roast.

Our bold 72% Dark Chocolate pairs best with a shot of espresso or a strong black coffee of dark roast.

Attractively packaged in copper-toned tins that feature a stylized picture of the harvesting of the coffee bean, these are guaranteed to be a favorite!

Delights

We are proud to present chocolate covered espresso beans in five different varieties. Whole espresso beans and regular coffee beans covered in dark chocolate are a traditional favorite. Our Tuxedo Beans are a bold mix of white and dark chocolate smothering espresso beans. Our House Blend Beans are a mix of dark, white, milk and marbled chocolate covering espresso beans. For an extra treat, try our Espresso Caramels: happy little spheres of caramel with bits of espresso nestled inside, all drenched in dark chocolate coating.

Three-Tin Gift Set

We love to make life easier for our customers! To that end, we offer a stylish combination of our three Coffee Lover's tins, neatly packaged in one convenient box. Perfect for gift-giving or for keeping next to the coffee pot at home, this is one collection that is sure to please!

A hug in a mug ... that's what many consider a cup of tea. And it's not far off. There's nothing quite like snuggling up with a warm cup of your favorite tea, a fluffy blanket and a good book. Well, unless you add our Tea Lover's Chocolate™ to the mix. Then we're talking a small slice of heaven. We've taken three of our most popular varieties of chocolate and paired them with specific teas. The result? A hug in a mug with a little kiss on the cheek; just like Mom used to do!
